Index

achievement of pupils in music, 54 aesthetic education, 14, 123–130 African music, 163–169, 192 anthropology of music, 83–86 appreciation of music, 119 Arts Council of Great Britain, 62, 71 arts, future of, 16–17, 195–200 arts in education, 3–17, 195–200; integrated programme of, 54, 145, 146, 156–157 assessment; of creative work, 53–54; of class music-making, 210–219 Association of British Orchestras, 62, 70 Attainment Targets (National Curriculum), 201–202, 208 aural awareness, 113, 128–129 Australia, music education in, 111, 120–121

ballet, 3, 16
brass bands, 86–87
breath, length of as a fundamental structural device, 5 broadcasting of music (on radio and television), 8

cadences, 25–26
Certificate in Sixth Year Studies in Music (Scotland), 223–224, 225 CFMI (Centres de Formation de Musiciens Intervenant), 233–237 chant (as a feature of children's songs), 25, 34 childhood and music, 112 children with learning difficulties, music activities for, 173 choreography, 192
City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, 62
City of London Sinfonia, 62 closure (in musical form), 25–26, 37 Coleman, Satis, 112
'commanding form' (Langer), 21
'community' role; of orchestral players, 61 et seq.; of opera company, 71 et seq.
composite art forms, 3; fusion of, 7, 12–13, 17; appraisal of, 17 composition, 47, 71, 104; a course of, 49–60; individual, 54–55; advanced pupils', 56; in European education schemes, 101, 236–237 communication; in music, 125; skills of, 63 concepts, musical, 19 conducting, percussion band ('Beating Time'), 115–116, 117–118 continuous assessment, 53 Council of Europe (resolution on Music for All, 1985), 99 counterpoint, teaching of, 54 creativity, 59, 127, 158; in responding to change, 61; of orchestral players, 62–63; and special needs, 103–110; facilitating conditions for, 104; not rule directed, 106; cultural traditions in, 61, 64–65, 240–241; in curriculum of schools, 49, 98; European dimension in, 99–101; reappraisal of, 158, 183–184
Curwen; 'Manual Signs', 79; Teacher's Manual, 80, 196

Dalcroze Eurhythmics, 187, 190, 196 dance, 189–190, 192
'dimension' in art forms, 7 disabled people, music and, 103, 211–215; percussion band recommended for, 116 discrimination, 15
dissonance, pupils' acceptance of, 56

B. J. Music Ed. (1992) 9, 3, 273–277.
Copyright © 1992 Cambridge University Press

Drake Research Project (music for disabled people), 103 drama; processes of, 5; skills in, 74 dulcimer, 118

Education Act 1879, 239
Education Reform Act 1988; Music and Performing Arts in, 3, 101, 143 education; as a process of enculturation, 98; changes in, in Europe, 99, 233–237 electronic keyboards, 266–267; inhibiting in composition, 53 emotional life, the, 19, 46 employers, requirements of (from education), 149, 160 End of Key-Stage Statement, (National Curriculum), 205 enrichment, education primarily concerned with, 124 ensembles, pupils' membership of, 53 enterprise activities through music, 151–152 ERASMUS (European Action for the Mobility of University Students), 101 ethnography, techniques of, in music education research, 131–141; potential of, 137–139 Eurocentric music education, 83, 97–102, 235
European Awareness Pilot Project, 100
European Community Baroque Orchestra, 100 European Community Youth Orchestra, 100 examinations, instrumental grade, 50, 88, 184, 217–218 expression, musical, 4, 8, 12, 38, 49, 59, 117

film and music, 8, 9 folk music; British, 80, 240 et seq.; world, 83; European, 100 form, 21, 59, 124; musical, sense of rules governing, 22–23, 126; closure as a feature of, 25; students' sense of shape and balance in, 53; referential, 124–127; understanding, 128; made concrete by movement, 192; four-phrase structure of (in children's songs), 26–28, 34, 37 France, music education in, 233–237 fusion in art forms, 7, 12, 17

gamelan, 54, 181
GCSE, 49, 53, 54, 55, 87, 144, 157–158, 164, 181, 201, 202, 208, 217 gesture, 195, 235
Glyndebourne Opera, education project ('Opera on the Pier'), 71–75
Guildhall School of Music and Drama (Department of Performance and Communication Skills), 61, 62, 70
Gresham Lecture, 70

Handy, Professor Charles, 61; Age of Unreason, The, 61; Gods of Management, 64, 69; the club culture, 64; the role culture, 64–65; the task culture, 65; the existential culture, 65 harmony, rules of, 129
Herbart, Johann (Theory of Recapitulation), 112
Hevner, K., checklist of mood adjectives, 9, 10 Hullah, John, 242–243, 244 ideas, musical, 20, 25, 46, 105, 108; related to notational ability, 53 impetus in art processes, 7 improvisation, 51, 52, 88; 227–231; movement, 192; jazz, 268–269 INSET, 74, 166

instrumental teaching, 49, 50, 181–186; selection for, 185–186; pupils studying piano less adventurous in composing, 53 intelligence, musical development of, 171–172 interaction, arts as agents for, 16 intensity (dynamic levels) in art forms, 7 inter-arts combinations, 13; outline model, 16 intuition, 32, 40, 46–47; in matters of form, 53 Inventing Core (Scottish Standard Grade examination), 218, 221, 224–225 inventiveness, musical; in children, 20; structure in, 21–22, 54; Stravinsky on, 104, 105

Javanese gamelan, 54
jazz, 177–178, 181, 190, 235, 268–269

kazoo (with percussion band), 118

keyboard, music for, 90–93 kinaesthetic sense; role of in music education, 187–194; the root of art making, 195–200 Kodály Concept, 79–80, 196

'lah' songs, 31, 34, 41, 42 language, relationships with music, 49, 54, 123–124, 125, 126, 129 learning; pupil-centred approach to, 100; in the arts, 197–199 linguistic meaning, 125 listening to music, 52, 53, 82, 113, 220, 222, 235; Listening Core (Scottish Standard Grade examination), 218, 220, 225
Liszt Academy (Budapest), 80
London Symphony Orchestra, 62 management; skills, 148; models of, 64; cultures (in orchestras), 65–70 managers, arts teachers as, 148 mastery, imitation, and imaginative play (Piaget), 21, 47 meaning in the arts, 4, 17; organisation fundamental to, 20; in children's songs, 24, 45

MIDI (Musical Instrument Digital Interface), 103, 106, 108 MIDIGRID, 213
mood (atmosphere, affect), 4; 'mood clusters', experiment with, 9 Moore, Stephen (work for Percussion Band movement), 119–120 movement in space and time, 3, 6–7, 112, 187–194; fundamental to musical understanding, 126; forms, 193 musicals, 3
musical education; the education of the human being, 98; for the disabled, 103–110 musical experience, educational qualities of, 113 musical understanding, 19, 108, 123–130 music and film, 3
music as an image of 'lived' time, 19 music education; theory of, 97–98, 262–263; in practice, 98–99; European dimension in, 99–102; in France, 99; in Germany, 101; in other European and Scandinavian countries, 101 Music Guide For Schools, A (Priestley, E. & Grayson, J. H.), 118 music industry, educational links with, 160 Music in the Secondary School Curriculum (Schools Council Project), 148, 204 music manuscript, 94
music, nature of, 178; essentially sociological, 133 music reading, 54; percussion band as an aid to, 113–114 music technology, 144, 146–148, 154–156, 266–268; for children with special needs, 103–110 music theatre, 3
music therapy, 103, 173, 213
Music through the Percussion Band (Yvonne Adair), 111, 118, 121 narrative songs (of small children), 22, 23–24; chants, 25

National Curriculum, music in the, 81, 82, 87–88, 90, 98, 99, 148, 157–158, 163, 181, 182, 183, 199, 201–209, 211, 264–266
National Music and Disability Information Service, 211
National Song Book, The, 239–253
Non-Statutory Guidance (National Curriculum), 205, 206, 208 notation, 49, 54–55, 87, 94, 186; creative use of, 50, 53; 'graphic', 52; rhythmic, 52; influences the way music is heard, 171 nursery rhymes, 28

opera, 3, 8, 16, 71–75, 93–94
Opera Factory, 74
orchestras; changing policies of, 61 et seq.; links with educational and community groups, 68; training of musicians for, 160
orchestration, 59
Orff, Carl, influence of on music education, 111, 120, 196 organic growth in artistic process, 6 parents; attitudes of, to music in schools, 49; reporting to, 184–185 participant observation (research), 138–139

patriotism, 240
pattern, cells and motifs, 4, 5, 46, 124; ability to recognise, 126, 127, 128, 171 percussion band, 111–122; educational qualities of, 113; music for, 115, 118; inclusion of other instruments with, 118, 121 performance arts, similarities and differences between, 3, 100 performance practice, differences in, 62 Performing Core (Scottish Standard Grade examination), 218, 220, 224 performing pupils' compositions, 56 Peyote songs, endings of, 26
phenomenology (Verstehen), 137 Piaget, J., 21, 46, 47
pitch teaching, 52
poetry, organic process of, 5 popular music; influence on small children's songs, 43 pot pourri songs (of small children), 22 Primary Schools, music in, 49–50, 81–83, 120–121; in France, 223–227 processes, musical, 19 programme music; pupil's composition, 59
Programmes of Study (National Curriculum), 202
'progressive' motion common to all arts, 7, 15 pulse, 52, 113, 121; sense of, developed by Movement, 51 regional arts associations, 62; Education Departments of, 71 research in music education, 131–141, 263–264; methods of, 135–136 rhythm band, 120

rhythm; notation of difficult, 52; divisive, presentation of, 193; and listening training, 235 rhythmical music the first type of music, 112, 190 rudiments of music, 49, 54, 89–90
Rudiments of Music, The (Martin Agricola, 1539), 89–90

Salt, M. (on the percussion band), 111 Scotland, music education in, 217–231 self-expression, 53, 59
singing; at sight, 88; value of, 90
'singing our news' (children's songs), 25 small group organisation, 50, 51 sociomusical research, 131 sol-fa, 52, 79, 89, 120; hexachordal solmisation, 90 solfège, 80
song, 7–8; children's spontaneous, 19–48; of pre-school children, 22–23; 'lah' songs, 31, 34, 41, 42, 44; 'Tiddly pom' songs, 42–43; national collections of, 241–242 Sonic Arts Network, 157–158 sounds; exploring, 47, 52, 54, 105; response to, 127–129, 171 spiral of musical development (Swanwick & Tillman), 15, 21, 46, 202
'speculative' stage, 41
Standard Attainment Tasks (National Curriculum), 204
Standard Grade examination (Scotland), 217 et seq.
Stanford, C. V., 243, 245 et seq.
steel band, 100
strings, music for, 174–176 structure and expression, 4, 14, 20, 26, 106–107, 259–262; in children's musical inventions, 21, 26–28 story-songs, children's, 25, 30, 31 structuring, hierarchic (in music), 20 style, musical, 83
'superordinate form' (Slobada), 20–21, 28, 29, 32 Suzuki (violin teaching programme), 192 symbolism, an attribute of music, 123 symmetry in art, 126, 127, 129
synthesizer, 144, 147

taste, musical, 133
tempo and rhythm, 4
texture, 4
theory of music, 52, 53
'Tiddly pom' songs, 42–43
time, music as an image of, 19 timetabling for music in schools, 50, 59, 71 titles a stimulus for composition, 53 transferable skills, 149–150 training; musical, 61–70; not to be confused with education, 158 transformation (of musical ideas), 20, 46 TVEI (Technical and Vocational Education Initiative), 143–162, 181, 214

Understanding British Industry (project), 160 ursatz (Schenker), 24

vocational education; contrasted with liberal education, 153–154; music and, 159–160
'voice', composer's, 55

Wiegold, Peter, 62, 70
William Parker School, Hastings, 71, 74, 163–169
Winnicott, D. W. (theory of maturational process), 195
Wittgenstein, L., 125, 129 Women's Institute percussion bands, 119 words and music, 7–8; setting words gives confidence in composing, 53 work skills, schools' responsibility for, 159 world music, 83–86
'World View of Music Education' (ISME Conference theme, 1988), 133

yodelling, 74